Head for the (Cobble) Hill

FINANCIER Rameez Saleh and his wife Manon Roux, the co-founder of shopping app Countr, paid $8.55 million for a Cobble Hill townhouse at 88 Amity St. The Brooklyn neighborhood is home to stars like actors Daniel Craig and Rachel Weisz, and singer Norah Jones. The couple's new spread is one of eight Polhemus Townhouses at River Park, a new development of seven condos, a park, a school and an urgent care center that replaced Long Island College Hospital. price of 88 Amity makes it the second-priciest sale in the neighborhood, topped only by photographer Jay Maisel's $15.5 million purchase of 177 Pacific St. in 2015, says Douglas Elliman broker Alex Maroni, who listed both homes. 88 Amity is 5,300 square feet with four bedrooms and four bathrooms. Shared amenities at River Park include a pool and deck, and indoor and outdoor children's playrooms.
